Setting the colour profile

The reference profile for all the prints in our laboratory is sRGB and it must be used as workspace in all the applications that allow it (Photoshop, Lightroom, InDesign, etc.) for a perfect match between (calibrated) monitor view and print.

Setting the workspace in InDesign

The Colour Settings panel (menu: 'Edit' > 'Colour settings') in InDesign must be set as shown in the screen below. This way we will be able to read your photographs correctly and to reproduce them as faithfully as possible on all the printers in our laboratory.

If you wish to apply transparency effects to the layout, it is important to set the transparency blend space on "RGB document", so as to avoid printing problems.

How to start designing the layout with InDesign

The size of the worksheet corresponds exactly to the chosen model, with a 5mm bleed space on the document.

Please note: To obtain a correct file for printing, please do change the preset values set of the document.

All our templates include guide lines for the correct positioning of photos and text. It is very important to adhere to these margins in order to avoid white borders or cropped images. All relevant content (text and images that do not extend to the edge of the page) must be positioned inside the MAGENTA LINE (safety margins). All content outside this area could be positioned too close to the cut or be hidden by the binding. If you do wish for your images to be printed near the edge of the sheet, you must drag them to the RED LINE (bleed), so as to create an expendable bleed space between the BLACK LINE (page cut) and the RED LINE (bleed).

Positioning images and text correctly

BLEED - The edge of the photo must not be positioned flush with the black line, or between the black and red lines. The photo must cover all the spaces up to the red border.

SAFETY MARGINS - To avoid cropping important parts of the photo it is important to keep the subject (text and photo) within the safety margins and NOT go over or keep flush with the cut line (BLACK LINE).

Exporting and sending the project

Once the layout is complete, PDFs of all the necessary documents must be created (inside pages, cover of the main album, cover of parents pack - if selected) by using our PDF export preset, which can be downloaded at this link:

Download preset to create a PDF suitable for our printing systems

Install the preset

Select “Upload” in the Adobe PDF Presets window and select the ILFOTOALBUM preset file.

Once the layout is complete, to create the PDF select “File” > “Adobe PDF Presets” > “ILFOTOALBUM preset...”
N.B.: do not change any items in the export options.
